

Quality and Environmental POLICY

ASPI sp. z o.o. established in 2004 was transformed into ASPI Spółka z ograniczoną odpowiedzialnością Spółka komandytowa.

The basic profiles of operation of the company are production, design and sales of wood processing and wood-derivative materials.

Metal machining services.

Our goal is to reach the position of leading market suppliers of products and services described above by satisfying the demands of customers to the fullest. We want high competence, reliability and punctuality to be our market highlights.

We want to achieve success by striving to reach:

- constant increasing of product and service quality by improving production conditions and investing in new technologies, reaching new customers
- generating profit necessary for completing an investment associated with the construction of a new production hall
- constant improvement of environmental impact by using available methods and practices in order to minimize environmental impact.

We hereby oblige ourselves to respect the legal and other requirements, by using qualified personnel and cooperating units and caring for them at the scope of competence and proper level of environmental issues awareness. We also declare to continuously improve the integrated management system and to provide resources necessary to implement principles of the policy.

Chairman of the board will carry out periodic inspections of the policy with the aim of improvement of the Integrated Management System, keeping the policy up to date and conformity with the development of company.